2017 Sponsorship Opportunities

The Virginia Dressage Association (VADA) is hosting Dressage at Lexington 14-16 July and 35TH Colonel Bengt Ljungquist Memorial Championships Finals and VADA Fall Competition 12-15 October 2017

VADA can create a sponsorship package to address your businesses' unique needs.

Becoming a sponsor for both shows will provide a discount to your sponsorship level investment.

Sponsorship opportunity can reach a large equestrian audience and visibility with over 350 riders and 1,000 competitors, spectators, and shoppers over a four (4) day show period.

Dressage at Lexington (DAL) is a premier dressage show, having grown to be one of the largest shows on the East Coast. Featuring special classes like the Prix St. Georges Challenge, a hotly contested FEI class, and the very popular Sporting Horse Amateur Challenge, "Dressage at Lexington" has become a destination event for amateurs and professionals alike. Sponsors and riders like the friendly atmosphere, the Virginia Horse Center, and the opportunity for a victory gallop.

After 27 years of developing and managing the event, show manager Debbie Rodriguez handed over the reins to the Virginia Dressage Association (VADA). VADA, an active and experienced United States Dressage Federation Group Member Organization with a long history of managing Championship shows, will start hosting "Dressage at Lexington" in 2017. Former VADA President Alison Head notes, "We are thrilled to have the opportunity to continue this important Dressage Show. We hope to continue the great work that Debbie Rodriguez has done, and add some special "VADA" touches as well.

The Colonel Bengt Ljungquist Memorial (CBLM) Championships is one of the oldest, most historic dressage championships. The show runs in conjunction with the Virginia Dressage Association's (VADA) Fall Competition. The CBLM Championships was founded in 1983 by Dr. Samuel Barish, a past president of USDF, for the purpose of stimulating dressage at the USEF. Later FEI and Musical Freestyle divisions were added to the competition. The CBLM Championships served as the basis for the Great American/USDF Regional Championship program.

Over 35 years, this Championship Show has evolved into a very well-liked show with sixteen (16) Dressage Clubs in eight States (NJ, PA, DE, MD, NY, VA, NC, SC) participating, seven (7) competition arenas, over 350 competitors, and 1,000 competitors, spectators and shoppers over the four (4) day show period.

In addition to awarding CBLM Championship honors, three special awards will be presented throughout the weekend. The Barbara Silverman Memorial Freestyle Award, the Mary Beth McLean Perpetual Trophy, and the Pasty Albers Memorial Perpetual Trophy.
